

STEFANO'S

A new and exciting partnership between The Art Vault and Stefano's Gallery 25 will involve a series of regular lunch and dinner events featuring the current artist in residence at The Art Vault.

This is a wonderful and informal opportunity to break bread with like-minded people and to learn more about the artist.

LONG TABLE LUNCH WITH THE ARTIST

Roberto Márquez

Roberto was born in Mexico in 1959 where he lived until his family moved to Guadalajara in 1972. He studied poetry, sculpture, and received a degree in Architecture. After completing this degree he dedicated himself to painting. He moved to Arizona in 1985 and has lived in the New York area since 1990. His work has been compared to Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera. He interweaves ideas taken from writers and composers who move him and this is combined with haunting biographical imagery. His work is passionate, moving and seductive.
