

Tim Storrier

Bio

'Australian artist Tim Storrier, born in 1949, has enjoyed a successful 40-year career, during which the Australian landscape has been his most significant source of inspiration. He has won many national prizes and awards and has exhibited widely in Australia and abroad.'

Excerpt taken from www.australianscreen.com.au, 'Tim Storrier, Lighting Fires'.

Tim Storrier was born February 13th, 1949 in Sydney. He grew up in rural NSW and moved back to Sydney to study the arts. He has travelled to many places around the world with his work and in 1994 was awarded AM for services to contemporary Australian art in the Australia Day Honours. He now lives and works in Bathurst NSW.

His official website can be found at: www.storrier.com

Major Exhibitions

2007 - (Paintings) Philip Bacon Galleries, Brisbane

2006 - Boys Own, Sherman Galleries, Melbourne

2005 - Fireworks, Artspace Mackay, Queensland

2003 - Tim Storrier: Dust and Ashes, Sherman Galleries, Sydney

2000 - 'Tim Storrier Drawing 1971 – 2003' Sherman Galleries, Sydney

1993 - 'Tim Storrier: A Survey' tours regional galleries in New South Wales and Victoria

1988 - 'Australian Bicentennial Exhibition' Fischer Fine Art, London

1986 - 'Ticket to Egypt' Art Gallery of New South Wales, Art Gallery of Western Australia

1983 - Fischer Fine Art London

1974 - 'Australian Landscape' Expo '74, Spokane ,Washington.

Major Awards

1994 - Awarded Member of the Order of Australia (AM)

1984 - The Sulman Prize

1978 - R.M. Ansett Hamilton

1969 - The Sulman Prize

1967 - Sakura Colour Products Prize